

LETTRES SUPÉRIEURES - 2021/2022

ENGLISH

The future Lettres Supérieures students who intend to study English as a first or second foreign language are asked to read at least one of the following novels:

Nemesis by Philip Roth
Tortilla Flat by John Steinbeck
Martin Eden by Jack London
Hitting a Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick by Zora Neale Hurston
A Single Man by Christopher Isherwood
Saturday by Ian McEwan
The Painted Veil by Somerset Maugham
Rebecca by Daphné du Maurier
The Grandmothers by Doris Lessing
The Silence of the Girls by Pat Barker

We also strongly recommend reading English or American papers, watching films in English and listening to the radio either on the Internet (<https://www.bbc.co.uk/radio4> or <https://www.npr.org> for example) or on a standard radio (BBC Radio 4 long wave 198 kHz) and seizing every opportunity to have conversations with native speakers.

We wish you a very pleasant summer and look forward to meeting you in September.

Laura Knowlton and Claire Lannic